IV. Approval of Agenda

V. Election of New Officers: President, Vice President, Treasurer
   A. President
      Rep. Ballard
      Studying Business and International Affairs, involved with Model United Nations. Brings a perspective of fair representation to the legislative setting.

      We have had a lot of change over the past year. It is our job to make sure the change we instill is positive. Goals include: effective integration of SAO, continuing conversations with City Council, mental health initiatives, bus / RTD issues, sexual assault outreach.

      Sen. Trevino
      Law student elected in the previous session, has spent the entire academic year in the position. Is a proud CU Alumni, and brings excitement and experience to the role.

      Goals include: collaboration with the Executive Branch, student groups, and cost centers, challenging legislation (including the budget, which we did not do), efficient and effective use of time while giving the on campus voices a chance to be heard.

      Sen. Trevino - Elected

   B. Vice President
      Rep. Ballard
Similar to speech from President, is passionate about ensuring Leg Council is successful and will do his best to support President Trevino.

Sen. Amaya

Studying Business (Finance), and brings a large amount of experience from serving as Rep. Council Speaker. Through experiences teaching other students, has learned how to overcome adversity and will bring that to the role of Vice President.

Sen. Amaya - Elected

C. Treasurer

Sen. Yin

First time on Leg Council, does not have experience but loves learning (evidenced by his asking of questions). Has background via Business Minor.

Sen. Brosseau

Mathematically inclined, loves numbers and pursuing a certificate in Finance. Has background via an accounting internship over the past summer.

Rep. Rugh

Newly elected Rep., worked with budgets in the past as CFO of HelpLine. Served on UMC budget and worked with that budget, as well, and is an Economics major. Dedicated to CUSG as a whole.

Rep. Ballard

Experience as being a returning Rep along with studying Finance allows him to ensure we will have a financially successful next session. Also has background as an internship with a financial startup.

Rep. Ballard - Elected
